CIVIL ACTION NO. 24-CV-3262

ORDER

AND NOW, this 9th day of June 2025, upon consideration of Defendants Deb Scarpantonio, Colleen Hammerstone, Joy Bettuccio, and Sabrina Cassioli's Motion to Dismiss (ECF No. 17) and Plaintiff Michael Bocina's Response (ECF No. 21), it is ORDERED that:

1. The Motion is GRANTED for the reasons stated in the Court's accompanying Memorandum.
2. The Amended Complaint is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE to Bocina filing a second amended complaint as set forth in paragraph three (3) of this Order.
3. Bocina may file a second amended complaint within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order. Any second amended complaint must identify all defendants in the caption of the second amended complaint in addition to identifying them in the body of the second amended complaint and shall state the basis for Bocina's claims against each defendant. The second amended complaint shall be a complete document that does not rely on the initial Complaint, Amended Complaint or other papers filed in this case to state a claim. When drafting his second amended complaint, Bocina should be mindful of the Court's reasons for dismissing the claims in his Amended Complaint as explained in the Court's Memorandum.

4. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send Bocina a blank copy of the Court's form complaint for a prisoner filing a civil rights action bearing the above civil action number. Bocina may use this form to file his second amended complaint if he chooses to do so.

5. If Bocina does not wish to file a second amended complaint and instead intends to stand on his Amended Complaint, he may file a notice with the Court within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order stating that intent, at which time the Court will issue a final order dismissing the case. Any such notice should be titled "Notice to Stand on Amended Complaint," and shall include the civil action number for this case. See Weber v. McGrogan, 939 F.3d 232 (3d Cir. 2019) ("If the plaintiff does not desire to amend, he may file an appropriate notice with the district court asserting his intent to stand on the complaint, at which time an order to dismiss the action would be appropriate." (quoting Borelli v. City of Reading, 532 F.2d 950, 951 n.1 (3d Cir. 1976))); In re Westinghouse Sec. Litig., 90 F.3d 696, 703–04 (3d Cir. 1996) (holding "that the district court did not abuse its discretion when it dismissed with prejudice the otherwise viable claims . . . following plaintiffs' decision not to replead those claims" when the district court "expressly warned plaintiffs that failure to replead the remaining claims . . . would result in the dismissal of those claims").

6. If Bocina fails to file any response to this Order, the Court will conclude that Bocina intends to stand on his Amended Complaint and will issue a final order dismissing this case.¹ See Weber, 939 F.3d at 239-40 (explaining that a plaintiff's intent to stand on his
